

FRANCK MULLER

GENEVE

VANGUARD™ MASTER BANKER SKELETON

Distinguished by the nature of its inexhaustible sources of inspiration, Franck Muller never ceases to inscribe its hallmark on the avant-garde creations. The Vanguard Master Banker defies the codes of the Haute Horlogerie and embraces an open-face dial.

The Vanguard Master Banker concentrates on the essence of complications and offers three different time zones all adjustable with the same crown. Thus, its owner can instantaneously see the time at the stock exchange locations of his choice, throughout the world. The dial features the home time in the center, hours and minutes, as well as two other world time zones indicated by two hour and minute counters either at 6 o'clock or at 12 o'clock. The Master Banker also allows its owner to indicate time differences of 30 minutes.

The Vanguard Master Banker is a true combination between the traditional and the innovation allowing to manifest Haute Horlogerie expertise. Powered by an automatic mechanical movement, the Vanguard Master Banker offers a power reserve of 42 hours.

Franck Muller reveals the first Master Banker embodied in the Vanguard shape for the utmost pleasure of watch lovers, seeking both Haute Horlogerie excellence and avant-garde creations.
